

Three seats are open for this year's LCS Board election on March 14, 2016. The following personal Bios have been provided by each individual LCS Board nominee.

Curt Bowen --- Curt Bowen was born in Sioux Falls, SD. He attended The University of Sioux Falls where he obtained his degree in Business Management. For the last 14 years, he has been in Lincoln with his wife Amy Bowen. Together they own multiple businesses throughout the state of Nebraska and surrounding areas. They have three children. Caden who has attended Lincoln Christian School since Kindergarten and is currently in 4th grade. Faith and Mason who are currently 2 and will be attending LCS in the near future.

Curt has been actively involved with Lincoln Christian School for the last five years. Currently he is involved with classroom verses and is coaching an Ambassadors Basketball team and assisting with an Ambassadors Baseball team. Curt and his family are regular attenders of Lincoln Berean Church. Through his journey at LBC and LCS, he has come to realize that he wants to do all he can to use his skillsets God has given him to continue to assist in the building of His kingdom.

Curt is very happy with the quality of education his son has and is receiving, and with his twins very close to being students as well, he wants to be able to help support the school by making good, solid decisions to ensure quality education for all.

Ryan DeHaan -- My wife Sherry and I have been married for 19 years and we have 3 children, April (10th grade), Janna (7th grade), and Grant (2nd grade). We attend Faith Bible Church where we are actively involved in the music and children's ministry programs. I am employed as a Pathologist with Pathology Medical Services, P.C. We began sending our children to LCS 8 years ago after we moved to Lincoln from Minnesota. Over the last 8 years, I have seen firsthand the positive impact for Christ that LCS has on our community and our children. There is no doubt in my mind that the Christ-centered education LCS provides plays an invaluable role in equipping my kids and every other student that attends to be salt and light in a fallen world. My wife has had the privilege to volunteer her time and talents helping out at LCS, both in the classroom and with extracurricular activities, and it has been a joy for her to do so. She has developed a deeper connection with the staff and families of LCS in the process. Over the last three years, I have been blessed to serve on the board and be more directly involved at LCS. That experience has led to a greater appreciation of the mission and vision of LCS, a greater appreciation of the staff and volunteers required to carry out that mission, and most importantly, a greater appreciation of God's faithful care and provision for the school. I would consider it a privilege to continue for a second term.

Nadia Abraham Gove -- I am first a foremost a daughter of Christ. I am married to a wonderful husband Nick Gove. I have 3 children Alyssa (6th), Sabrina (3rd), and Abraham (2 years old). I am currently taking a prolonged sabbatical from practicing medicine as a Pediatric Hospitalist to stay home and raise our children. I am a Children's Leader for the Day Women's Class of Bible Study Fellowship (5 years) and volunteer as an Assistant Tennis Coach for the LCS Girls Tennis Team (2nd year). I have been actively involved in many aspects of LCS and since I have stopped working I have been looking for ways to use my God given strengths to focus on the spiritual health of children instead of just their physical health. I feel the LCS School Board would make good use of my unique set of gifts, strengths, and passion to continue focusing my attention on what is best for all children of all ages. I have reaped the benefits of a high quality education and I want to ensure that my children along with all the rest of the students at LCS receive the best education they possibly can; not just academically but spiritually also.

Todd Hohlen – Thank you for considering me as a candidate for the Lincoln Christian School board. LCS is a very special place to me and my wife, Steph. As parents we are deeply grateful to have been a part of what God is doing here at Lincoln Christian for the past six years. We have three children: Greichaly (preschool), Turner (2nd grade) and Carter (4th grade). Our family attends First Street Bible Church where we are heavily involved in ministry and I also serve as an elder. I practice dentistry here in Lincoln and have my own office, Ridge Pointe Dental. There are numerous things that both we as parents, and our children as students, love about Lincoln Christian but likely the greatest is that LCS is in its truest sense a family. We are indeed a family that loves & serves the Lord together as we work side-by-side in the education and raising of our children. My sole desire to serve on the school board rests upon continuing to boldly uphold the Mission Statement, Vision Statement and Core Values. Needless to say, our country is experiencing interesting times and we must stand firm in God's Word as a school and continue to develop a proper Biblical worldview in and for our children. These statements and values are central to who we are as a private Christian school. We must continue to seek and honor God in all we do while proclaiming the Gospel –salvation in Jesus Christ alone– to each one of our students and the world around us. Again, thank you for considering me for service on our LCS school board.

Keith Miles – I count it a joy and privilege to have had the opportunity to serve LCS as a member of the school board these past three years. My wife Becky (LCS Class of 1983) and I have been married 26 years and have two daughters, Tiffany (LCS Class of 2015) and Jessica (8th grade, future LCS Class of 2020). Through the years, God worked in my heart to show me that a Christ-centered education is about God being central in EVERYTHING, whether it's math, science, art or any other subject or extra-curricular activity—our school mission statement has it right—to teach our students the “Truth, through learning about God’s world in light of God’s Word”.
Becky and I both have a passion for Lincoln Christian and have enjoyed the opportunity to serve at LCS. I first got involved with the LCS Foundation board and have had a great opportunity to utilize my experience as general counsel for the University of Nebraska Foundation in volunteering for both the Foundation board and then the School board. Like many of you, I was so excited to see LCS eliminate its long-term debt over the past few years and there are so many exciting things on the horizon, including the new Science and Technology addition set to open this fall. It is truly my heart’s desire that LCS can serve every family in our community who would like to send their kids to LCS, and that we can provide financial support for those families who sacrifice to enroll at LCS.

I know the dramatic impact a Christian education can have in the lives of students as well as their families. While the enemy lurks at our door daily, I am passionate about what God can accomplish through LCS and its outstanding staff dedicated to helping our students achieve academic success and build a firm spiritual foundation so they will always “be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have.” (1 Peter 3:15). I look forward to serving God at LCS in whatever way I can.
